

João

Batista

João Batista was, for a long time, an officer of the National Republican Guard (GNR). At 55 years old, he retired from the GNR and started to grow his own vegetable garden.

His vegetable garden is open to visitors all year round and all produce grown by João Batista can be purchased. Visitors can pick and harvest various vegetables. João Batista also sells eggs, honey and chickens.

