

Delfina Cantina Portuguesa

AlmaLusa Baixa/Chiado - Lisbon - PORTUGAL

The laid-back Delfina Cantina Portuguesa is set on one of the most beautiful Lisbon squares, Praça do Município, on the ground floor of AlmaLusa Baixa/Chiado, a quaint 28-room and suite boutique hotel.

Delfina restaurant – which name was inspired by the “fine deli” expression and the Portuguese given name Delfina – is best known for the traditional Portuguese cuisine. But the curated selection of local wines, the polished yet casual vibe, the home-style fare, the cozy outdoor dining area, and the staff’s genuine care complete the package.

Local and out-of-towners alike flock there for the famed Portuguese dishes, prepared with the freshest local produce. The à la Carte menu includes cod à Brás (a delicious concoction of scrambled eggs, salt cod strips, onion, and crispy potatoes), roasted octopus and Portuguese beef tenderloin steak.
